

HENKEL DONE UP BROWN, AND BY HIS FAMILY, TOO.

United States Marshal Appears at Federal Building in New Sartorial Setting.

United States Marshal William Henkel was "done up brown" to-day, and he declared it was the first time in his life.

It was his own family that put one over on the representative of the United States Government's strong arm. Marshal Henkel recently celebrated his fifty-second birthday, and his children decided to tog father out in a sartorial setting that would leave no room for cavil on the part of the harmony advocates.

The Marshal's eldest son presented him with a suit of brown clothes of latest cut; his youngest son gave him a brown silk necktie; his second youngest son gave him a nifty brown silk handkerchief; his oldest daughter gave him a brown derby hat, and his little granddaughter got into the game with a pair of brown silk socks. The Marshal presented himself with a pair of tan spats.

In this array Mr. Henkel appeared at the Federal building to-day like a real harbinger of spring, and he got away with it.

GIRL CAUGHT AT BARNARD COLLAPSES IN COURT.

A fine of $100 or thirty days in the Tomb was imposed to-day on Miss Marie Schmitt, twenty-four years old, of No. 153 Lincoln place, Brooklyn, in Special Sessions. The young woman was arrested in the Household Arts Building of Barnard College, where she was found by Miss Margaret Burns trying to open lockers. She paid the fine.

Miss Schmitt fainted when sentence was announced and had to be carried from the court-room. The Tomb physician was called and it was nearly an hour before the young woman was revived.

J. Schepner, a travelling salesman, took the stand and told the court he was engaged to marry Miss Schmitt.
Miss Virginia Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard, asked the Justice to punish the young woman to the law's limit.
She said there had been a number of thefts from the college girls' lockers but that since her arrest they had stopped.

MASCOTCRUSHED CUT TOBACCO*The Good NEW Smoke for Pipe and Cigarette has built up a whirlwind success just on that simple idea.

And remember, MASCOT isn't "Just another nickel tobacco."

It stands shoulder-to-shoulder with any ten-cent tobacco you ever smoked. It is made from regulation ten-cent material.

Here's MASCOT:

Good old ripe mild Burley leaf—the best that Kentucky's golden sun and rich soil produces — carefully cleaned and cured until it is pure and mellow and sweet; then sliced and crushed until the tobacco runs uniformly throughout and does not "smoke in streaks."

Men, the proof of a tobacco is in the smoking of it. Take it from me, there isn't any better tobacco than
MASCOT.
Smoke it
today.

MASCOT is really a ten-cent tobacco—Quality and Quantity—and I sell it for 5 cents—How can I do it?

When I bucked into this tobacco-selling business I brought along with me a brand new idea.

The idea was to give you a ten-cent quality—and quantity—of smoking tobacco for 5 cents, and still keep from going broke myself.

There was only one way to do it. I knew the way. It was simple. I cut out the tin box cost—which is heavy—and put MASCOT in an inexpensive cloth pouch. The 10-centers come in tin boxes. You can't smoke tin, but you pay for tin.

My pouch is just as good as the tin box; in fact, it has many advantages over the tin box—and it saves me the money which makes it possible for me to give you double value for yours.
